

AMERICANS GAIN 5 MILES IN NEW DRIVE TODAY; TEN VILLAGES TAKEN BY PERSHING'S TROOPS

Huns Lay Plans for Retreat From France to Middle of Belgium

ATTILY, VERMAND AND VENDELLES ARE CAPTURED BY BRITISH

Cross Canal du Nord on Front Before Cambrai; Advance North of Epehy

LONDON, Sept. 12. (7:38 p. m.)—British troops have captured all of Havrincourt village on the Cambrai front except the northeastern edge, it was learned here tonight. They advanced on a 3½-mile front to a depth of half a mile.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—The Germans are constructing a new line of defense from Antwerp to Metz, according to advices here today. The forts of Antwerp are being restored and improved. When completed the new defense system will be known as the Parsifal line.

A line of defense such as described in this despatch would run across the middle of Belgium down to the Metz, the important fortress of Alsace. To reach such a line would mean surrendering all of France and half of Belgium.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Attily, Vermand and Vendelles, northwest of St. Quentin, have been captured by the British, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

On the front before Cambrai the British crossed the Canal du Nord. Attacking during the night the British seized the powerfully fortified railway triangle southwest of La Basse, in Flanders.

The statement said: "We crossed the Canal du Nord, northwest of Havrincourt and established ourselves on the west bank of the canal east and north of Moeuvres. During the night we attacked and captured the strongly fortified position known as the Railway Triangle southwest of La Basse, taking a number of prisoners and machine guns."

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Determined German resistance taking the form of sharp counter attacks at certain points and British assaults on positions before the Hindenburg line, were reported in night official statements of the Allied war offices. The fighting was only light sparring and maneuvering for position, compared with the heavy battles of past weeks.

Field Marshal Haig announced his troops had advanced north of Epehy on the Hindenburg line, taking some prisoners.

Near Vermand, northwest of St. Quentin, the British pushed forward during the day. The ridge west of Gouzeaucourt, held by the British, was again attacked but Haig by much gun fire repulsed the enemy. German artillery near Havrincourt wood, on the Cambrai front, is developing "considerable activity," Haig said.

In Flanders the British further improved their positions. French troops during Wednesday merely held their gains against counter attacks. Six of these were hurled at the Allied line near Laffaux and Calles-sur-Aisne. The Allies—including Americans—menace the Chemin des Dames and the enemy's Aisne river positions from the western flank.

Attacking down the high road from St. Quentin to Ham, the Germans struck French forces southeast of Rouppe, it was announced, but were beaten and repulsed.

Berlin's night report said the day on the battlefield passed quietly.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Very little activity in the air on September 10, owing to heavy rain storms, was reported in the British aviation communiqué.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—"North of the Ailette a surprise attack by us captured some prisoners," the war office announced today. "In the regions of Rheims and Prognies there was artillery fire. In the Champagne and in the Vosges two enemy surprise attacks were repulsed."

CHILEANS KEEP GERMAN SHIP FROM BLOWING UP HUN SHIP

Big Sensation Caused By Teuton Plans to Destroy Interned Vessel

SANTIAGO, Chile, Sept. 12.—Naval authorities of the Chilean port of Pisagua today surprised the Germans aboard the interned ship Carla, who had prepared electrical installations to blow up the vessel at any moment.

The captain of the Carla denied permission to the authorities to board the ship and they were forced to bring troops to exact obedience.

The occurrence caused a big sensation due to the recent promise of the German minister not to allow any repetition of attempts to destroy or injure the interned vessels.

It was rumored that documents were found proving the German minister had ordered German captains to destroy their ships to avoid confiscation.

WITNESS AGAINST VENICE POLICE CHIEF MISSING

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—At almost the hour he was scheduled to testify against Chief of Police Raymond of Venice, James Johnston of Toronto, Canada, was reported missing today. He is the complaining witness against Raymond, alleging Raymond and Attorney Frank Allender conspired to imprison him falsely and blackmail him out of approximately $2000. The trial was halted and a statewide search for Johnston was ordered.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 12.—Dispatches from Helsingborg today said it was rumored counter revolutionaries had captured Petrograd.

PRESIDENT SIGNS JOINT CONGRESS DRY RESOLUTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—President Wilson today signed the joint resolution empowering him to establish dry zones around war work plants.

RESERVE BANK HEREAFTER TO SELL SAVINGS STAMPS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—War Savings Stamps campaigns in the west hereafter will be conducted under the leadership of the federal reserve bank and as a separate treasury department organization similar to that in charge of the Liberty Loan. This was announced following a conference of reserve bank officials today.

AUGUST FRUIT SHIPMENTS BROKE ALL U. S. RECORDS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—All records were broken in the movement of fruits during August, according to reports to the railroad administration today. From California to the Missouri river and Chicago 138 single fruit trains were operated during the last month. These trains carried 5640 cars. The total California fruit movement since June 1 when the season opened now amounts to 448 trains of 17,495 cars.

NOT HATED, JUST HONEST WRATH, SAYS THE KAISER

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 12.—Germany has no hatred only honest wrath, the kaiser said in a speech to Krupp workers, according to a dispatch received here today. "Germany's enemies began the war because they were envious of Germany's prosperity," the kaiser said. "Their envy became hatred when their calculations failed. Germans do not know hatred—only honest wrath, which deals the enemy a blow and then when he is prostrate and bleeding we extend him our hand and look to his recovery. Germany is only fighting for existence and must fight the battle through."

Enemy Has Improved Only In the Art of Sprinting

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Sept. 12.—General Foch continues to give von Ludendorff heavy local raps as he tightens the German against Hindenburg's wall of concrete and steel, but generally speaking, today the line is fairly stabilized from the English Channel to Switzerland.

German boast their lines are impregnable and say the Allies never will be able to break down their resistance. Figures certainly seem to prove the German power of resistance is already immeasurably less now than it was in 1917. During the Arras-Vimy offensive in 1917 the British captured 19,343 prisoners and 257 guns in April; 3412 prisoners and one gun in May. In the Messines drive they took 8866 prisoners and 66 guns during June, 4309 prisoners and nine guns during July. In the Flanders-Ypres drive the British captured 10,697 prisoners and 38 guns in August, 5296 prisoners and eleven guns in September, 128 prisoners and fifteen guns in October.

Since the start of the counter offensive this year the British have captured 75,000 prisoners and 750 guns. Whereas in 1915 the British took approximately only one gun for each 700 prisoners, this year they took one gun for each 100 prisoners, proving there is either greater dash on the part of the British, less resistance from the Hun, or both.

Total Allied captures in 1918 are approximately 150,000 prisoners and 2100 guns, or about one gun for every sixty prisoners. Plainly the German soldiers have improved since 1917 only in running.

Proposed Bolsheviki Blow In North Will Be Futile

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 12.—Massacres in revenge for the murder of Moses Uritski, Petrograd police chief, and Premier Lening were demanded by the Bolsheviki newspaper Krasnaya Gazeta, according to a despatch received here today.

The article was headed "Blood for Blood," and said: "We will turn our hearts to steel and without mercy we will kill our enemies by the scores and by the hundreds. Let them be killed by the thousands for the blood of Lenin and Uritski."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—With American troops landed at Archangel to back up Allied marines and the United States sailors already in that region, it was held here today that the proposed Bolsheviki thrust in the north will be futile.

Germany has done her utmost to stir the Bolsheviki to make a drive in northern Russia, even getting a treaty providing for such an effort. On the other hand there have been indications that the Allies expected to forestall such a movement by taking the initiative and moving southward.

The number or nature of the new troops is not revealed but it is assumed they came from English or French camps and were well seasoned. Press despatches indicated that they are from the northern states and that many of the men speak Russian, thus combining the military with the propaganda offensive.

GREATEST YANK FORCE YET IN ACTION HITS TOWARD RHINE ON TOUL SECTOR EAST OF VERDUN

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Americans have advanced five miles at their point of greatest penetration east of St. Mihiel, it was learned here tonight.

North of St. Mihiel the Americans have captured Combres. French troops are reported in the western outskirts of St. Mihiel. The Americans have captured Thiécourt and Pannes, three miles from their starting point, and also have taken Nonsard, three and a half miles from the starting point. American patrols are reported approaching Vignelles in the center of the salient.

By Fred S. Ferguson, United Press Staff Correspondent

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE METZ FRONT, Sept. 12.—The first American offensive started at five o'clock this morning between the Meuse and the Moselle rivers. The attack was carried out by the First army, under the direct command of Gen. Pershing. The Americans have captured ten villages and advanced several kilometers on a fifteen-kilometer front (about fifteen miles).

The immediate object of the attack is limited to a specified line. Tanks are in action. The greatest number of American troops and artillery yet involved in any single operation is engaged in the attack. The French are assisting toward the right and also toward the left. This dispatch is filed from the St. Mihiel salient.

More than 100 tanks manned by Americans aided in smashing the concrete-reinforced first line of the enemy in the region of St. Baussant (twelve miles south of St. Mihiel). The tanks drove forward behind a dense smoke screen.

The town of Montsec (seven miles east of St. Mihiel) was kept shrouded in a smoke screen all morning to prevent effective German observation. The weather is ideal for the offensive.

The Allies have complete supremacy in the air. The attack followed four hours of the most terrific artillery preparation, starting at 1 a. m. There was rain during the night and flashes from hundreds of guns concentrated around the salient brilliantly lighted up the storm clouds.

The First army's air reserve, working with the French, assumed the offensive with the infantry. At 9 a. m. they reported not a single German plane in the sky. American bombers and observers worked unimpeded.

An American driven narrow-gauge railway and wagons rushed up with ammunition. All other work was done by Americans, making this the first complete all-American attack.

Artillery and tanks so smashed the powerful enemy first line that little infantry resistance was encountered. Prisoners indicated they had been expecting an attack but did not know where it would be made.

The number of prisoners taken is probably large. Indefinite reports at the hour of cabling say that groups of 50 to 100 are passing through villages near the front. Many of the prisoners are from the crack Tenth division which participated in the Marne offensive last June.

From the moment the first American went over the top today, reports flowed back steadily telling of increasing successes.

The French are advancing on a thirty-five kilometer arc between the point of the American attack. They are starting the encirclement of St. Mihiel.

At 11:30 a. m. Allied artillery was moving forward. Pagny sur Moselle is aflame from the American guns. This town is twelve miles from Metz and five miles north of where the Allied line crosses the Moselle.

The attack on the left side of the salient is also making progress.

St. Mihiel is on the Meuse directly in front of Metz, approximately 33 miles from that city and about 23 miles from the Lorraine border. It is at the apex of the St. Mihiel salient.

This dispatch from Ferguson was received by the United Press in New York in triplicate via Western Union, commercial and France cables. The cables indicated they had been relayed from the front by courier to Nancy, from which point they were forwarded via Paris and London.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—An American offensive was begun on the Meuse and the Moselle at five o'clock this morning.

The region of the Meuse and the Moselle is on the Toul front before the important fortress of Metz, in German Lorraine. This is the point where the American concentration has been on for months.

The American line is between two or three miles of the German border. At some points the line actually touches the Lorraine line. The battle line is approximately fifteen miles from Metz.

Metz has been an American objective, according to most theories of the plans of the Allied high command.

At this point it has been predicted the Americans might strike the blow that would be aimed at a drive toward the Rhine, this being the shortest route to the great industrial valley.

General March announced last week 93 per cent of the American rifles in France were concentrated under direct command of General Pershing.

right angle, beginning at Verdun, then running about 20 miles south to St. Mihiel and turning eastward for 25 miles toward the German border.

The Meuse and the Moselle rivers are the boundaries of this 25-mile stretch along which the Americans today have started their offensive.

The country is rather difficult for military operations. It is hilly and has been heavily protected with artillery by the Germans. Nevertheless, von Hindenburg may well have been forced by his search for man

MAY BE AFTER HUN INDUSTRIAL TOWNS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Launching of America's drive in the Toul sector, where probably a million Yanks are concentrated, may mean the beginning of General Pershing's forecasted campaign of destruction against the German industrial centers on the Rhine. While awaiting full details of the new offensive to determine whether or not it is destined to become a major action, officials were guarded in their comment today.

It is known, however, that systematic destruction of German industries on the Rhine has long been urged. It is felt here the best opportunity of giving Germany an example of the wreck she has wrought in Belgium and Northern France lay in a campaign across the Rhine from the Americans' concentration point between the Meuse and the Moselle.

Beside offering the opportunity of reaching Germany by a short line, the drive, presents the chance of preventing added German pressure farther north.

—W. S. S.—

MAY TRY TO THROW HUN BACK TO METZ

BY J. W. T. MASON (United Press War Expert)

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The American offensive has started against the German positions southwest of Metz. The objective may be Metz or it may be the German front in Lorraine south of Metz in the general direction of the Rhine.

The probability is at present the Americans have as their objective the linking up on the Mihiel segment, which would throw the Germans back on Metz and straighten the Allied front along the German front.

The St. Mihiel salient is the most dangerous pocket now remaining along the whole of the German west front.

If its destruction is the immediate purpose of the American attack an assisting assault may be developed by the Franco-American forces who are known to occupy the line on the west side of the wedge between St. Mihiel and Verdun.

The pocket is in the form of a right angle, beginning at Verdun, then running about 20 miles south to St. Mihiel and turning eastward for 25 miles toward the German border.

The Meuse and the Moselle rivers are the boundaries of this 25-mile stretch along which the Americans today have started their offensive.

The country is rather difficult for military operations. It is hilly and has been heavily protected with artillery by the Germans. Nevertheless, von Hindenburg may well have been forced by his search for man power to have decided to relinquish eventually the St. Mihiel wedge.

It is highly improbable, however, that he had completed his preparations so soon for this operation. The Americans may well, therefore, have caught him off his guard by their sudden attack today.

ADOLPH CALLENS IS TO BE TRIED OCTOBER 3

Ed Martin, driver of a San Diego stage, has sworn to a complaint charging Adolph Calless, San Joaquin bean grower, with careless driving of an automobile. Martin said Calless in an automobile passed Martin's stage, bumped it and caused Martin to go off the road. The trial of the case has been set for October 3 at 2 p. m. A number of witnesses have been called for the prosecution and the defense. Martin lives at San Diego.

COX WILL LEAVE IT TO UPPER COURT TO DECIDE BOOZE CASE

Justice Cox has washed his hands of the transportation of booze ordinance. He is going to leave the whole construction of that new law to the superior court. Yesterday he held Percy E. Woolsey of La Habra to answer for trial in the superior court, and in doing so he said that he did not believe the superior court could convict Woolsey, but since the law and its points of controversy have never been passed on he proposes to send everything that comes his way to the superior court until that court finds out what's what in regard to that law. Some few weeks ago the county passed the ordinance prohibiting the transportation of liquor through dry territory "for the purpose of distribution or sale." The superior court has never given a decision to define the word "distribution."

AUTO OVERTURNS IN SMASH. TWO ARE INJURED SEVERELY

Woman Severely Bruised, and Baby Has Gash on Forehead In Accident

Last evening a woman and baby were injured in the overturning of an automobile at the corner of Sullivan and West Fifth streets. Mrs. Ed Rathke of Newport was severely bruised and her 9-month-old baby was bruised and gashed upon the forehead. The accident was the result of a collision between two automobiles. One was driven by Ed Rathke, his machine being occupied by him and his wife and baby and 2-year-old daughter. The other, a heavier machine, was driven by Roy Davis of Bolsa. Davis' father was in the machine with him. According to the report made to police headquarters, Davis was driving east on Fifth street and Rathke was driving north on Sullivan. The collision came as Rathke was driving out upon Fifth. Rathke's machine was struck, and was turned over. Rathke and his 2-year-old daughter escaped injury. While severely bruised, Mrs. Rathke's injuries are not serious, though she is suffering today from slight concussion of the brain. She and the baby were taken to the Santa Ana Hospital, and later were taken to the forehead and a severe bruise at the back of the head. The baby suffered considerably throughout the night. It is not believed that the infant's injuries are serious.

JOHN DILLEY MEETS SUDDEN DEATH IN ELEVATOR HERE

No Responsibility For Accident Placed By Coroner's Jury at Inquest Today

John W. Dilley, well known son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dilley of West Third street, was instantly killed about 7:30 last evening, when he was in some manner caught in the open door of the elevator in the W. H. Spurgeon building, which he was operating, and crushed between the floor of the elevator and the ceiling. There were no witnesses to the accident, but it is believed the young man accidentally slipped when starting to close the door of the cage and in falling clutched the control, causing the cage to shoot upward. His hold on the control was evidently broken as his body was crushed, and the elevator stopped instantly. R. L. Bisby, manager of the building, accompanied by Mrs. Bisby, had just alighted and were leaving the main entrance to the building when they heard the crash. Returning at they found the young man dead. The case was lowered and the body was taken to the Mills & Winbigler parlors, where Coroner Winbigler held the inquest at 10 o'clock this morning. The jury's verdict was that Dilley "came to his death on September 11th, 1918, by crushing of the heart and lungs by being accidentally caught between the floor of elevator and top of the door and while engaged in operating the elevator of the W. H. Spurgeon building. We place no responsibility for the accident upon any party or parties concerned." The jury was composed of R. J. Sweet, Louis Fleischman, Clinton Innes, Frank Lusher, W. H. Adams, Joe Bickness and P. E. Newman. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

PROSPECT BEAN AUTO TRAVEL IS THE LIFE, SAYS GARDNER

Threshing Reports Indicate No Increase In the San Joaquin Average

Present indications are that the average output per acre for lima beans on the San Joaquin ranch will not be any greater than last year. Threshing so far have shown some of the leases lighter than last year and some a bit heavier, with the indications that the average will be about the same as last year. When bean cutting started in it was thought that the output would show an average increase of one or two sacks to the acre. There are four big threshing outfits at work on beans in the San Joaquin section, with another big outfit in the El Toro country, with some smaller outfits here and there. There are at least three fewer big outfits in the field this year than there were last. However, the bean men have been doing very well so far as getting help is concerned, and the bean harvest has been moving right along. Present prospects are that the threshing on the San Joaquin will be finished in about twenty days.

THE WORST IS OVER, SAYS LLOYD-GEORGE

MANCHESTER, England, Sept. 12.—"The worst is over," Premier Lloyd-George declared here today in receiving the freedom of the city. "The situation now is good, really distinctly good," he said. "The tunnel is long and there are still some steep gradients to be climbed, but it is getting shorter. The worst is over. "The casualties in the last advance were less than one-fifth the total suffered in the advance of 1916. The main difference between 1916 and 1918 is the unity of command. "The advent of the Americans additionally depresses the Germans," Lloyd-George said. "There is no finer feat in the history of English industry than the transportation of the Americans across the Atlantic. The Germans did not expect more than two divisions. That was another miscalculation. Hundreds of thousands of Americans are there now and the Germans know it. They are the advance guard of at least ten millions of the finest material in the world. "When we suffered our reverse on March 21 we still had large reserves. I have already expressed gratitude to those who criticized the government, charging we had no reserves, as it was successfully misleading to the Germans. "Only national heart failure will prevent real victory." —W. S. S.— Twenty-nine Canadians have won the Victoria Cross in the present war.

DEALERS MUST REPORT SUGAR SALES OR OCT. SUPPLY WILL BE CUT

While the price of sugar in the hands of refiners has advanced 1 1/2 cents per pound, yet under the rules and regulations of the food administration, at wholesale and retail dealers who have sugar on hand bought at the old prices are required to sell this sugar without any advance. Whenever a retailer advances his price, he should be able to show the actual sugar sold at the advanced price was billed out to him at the new price. A number of the retail stores have not been sending in weekly a list of the two pound and five pound sales of sugar to County Food Administrator A. J. Crookshank as required. These dealers will find that their supply of sugar for October will be cut off unless they comply with these requirements. —W. S. S.—

APPLE HARVEST BEGINS

YUCAIPA, Sept. 12.—Apples, the big red apples that have made this valley famous, are ripe, and the picking of the big crop has been started. Land army women are going to have an important share in the harvesting of this great crop. The picking gang is not large yet, as the early fall varieties only are being picked now. The Jonathans, King Davids and Winter Bananas are ripening now and they will be handled first. It is believed that 250,000 boxes of apples, will be handled in Yucaipa this year and that the crop will be worth in the neighborhood of $500,000. The early varieties are running to excellent sizes. —W. S. S.—

The American Y. M. C. A.

(By Rev. G. A. Francis, Chairman of the Orange County Y. M. C. A. Recruiting Committee.)

During the early days of the great war, a great many automobiles such as trucks, ambulances, touring and transport cars, were put out of commission and pushed away into the junk-heap, their places being taken by new ones as the military forces operating on the western front had neither the time nor the men to spare to repair these autos back into commission. The result was that thousands of splendid machines were temporarily disabled, which could, if repair had been possible, have been of great value to the Allied forces. Now that the tension of shortness in man power has been relieved, the above-mentioned machines are coming in for their share of attention. Now to avoid, in some measure, the enormous continued expense of purchasing and using only new machines, special attention is being given to the repair and renovation of very many of these temporarily disabled autos.

This has necessitated a special call for a host of good "repair men" who, if they can be secured, will save the government a vast deal of time in the construction and transportation of new machines, and as well, a vast deal of money, by substituting a good machine temporarily disabled, for the purchase of a brand new machine of the same quality.

A thousand proficient repair men on the western front would mean an enormous help and an incalculable saving to the American Expeditionary Force. It is not an army of half-baked mechanics or men who are good at guessing what is wrong with a machine, or a lot of fellows who will TRY to fix autos, but a strong force of capable repair men, who can tell at a glance what is the matter with a car, whether it is worth repairing and how to put it back in good running order, that is needed.

It is just here that a group of our good mechanics have an opportunity to exercise their patriotism. They may not get the big money which they would receive at home in compensation for the years of diligent effort which they have put forth to prepare themselves as first-class mechanics. But why should any genuine patriot today figure his time in mere dollars, when he has the opportunity of making it count in actual service for his country, which is something infinitely bigger and better than cold cash?

We do not believe that any of the outstanding men who have gone overseas can possibly have calculated on making their foreign expedition a money-getting scheme or a money-saving occasion, but rather, a special opportunity which they could not afford to let pass to give the country the best they had to offer.

There are many men throughout this county, who, possessing natural mechanical ability, which, when coupled with what training in this line they have already enjoyed, together with a short additional experience which would be theirs if they were ushered into the war work, would make their presence a factor of tremendous value at this most strategic point in carrying on the war.

How to pry these men free from their present moorings is a problem, but we are assured of this, that once they saw the opportunity in its true light, they would be only too glad to put their time and talent on the altar of their country's service.

This appeal is issued by the War Recruiting Committee of Orange County, with headquarters at Room 5, Orange County Trust Building, Santa Ana, Cal.

COUGHED FIFTEEN YEARS
Coughs that hang on and grow worse in the night and weaken the sufferer are relieved by Foley's Honey and Tar often than by any other remedy. R. F. Hall, Mabe, Va., writes: "For 15 years I was afflicted with a troublesome bronchial cough and irritation of the throat. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me; after taking one bottle the cough ceased and has not returned." No medicine stands higher as a family remedy for colds for children and grown-ups.—Adv.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS NOTES FROM ORANGE CITY

ORANGE, Sept. 12.—The resignation of Trustee O. E. Gunther was read and accepted at the monthly meeting of the city council Tuesday evening. Gunther's father, L. D. Gunther, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The resignation of Mrs. Alice Armor as a member of the library board was accepted. Miss Lydia Killifer was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Enrollment in St. John's parochial school, which opened Monday, totals 136. Expectations are that it will eventually reach 150, which is approximately the same enrollment as last year.

The change in the course of study, with elimination of the German language, is working out smoothly, according to Principal William Battermann. "We are well pleased with results of the change," said Battermann. "Our enrollment for this year, when a few pupils who are still away on vacations, return will probably reach 150," he said.

Cecil Winters of Orange and Miss Rachel Cooper of Chino were married at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. Winters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Winters, at 394 South Orange street. Rev. H. C. Basney of the Seventh Day Adventist church officiated. The wedding was one of war time simplicity in all details.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Chino. The young couple will reside at the Winters residence while the parents spend the winter months in Imperial Valley.

William Park, Jr., of Calexico, was in Orange Tuesday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Park. He was called from Calexico to Pasadena by the serious injury of his second son, who fell from a second-story window to the pavement, fracturing his skull. The child is now doing nicely.

Miss Ruby Biggs went to Los Angeles Tuesday to enter the Los Angeles Normal school.

George Paff of Kansas, who has been attending the G. A. R. encampment at Portland, Oregon, arrived here for a visit with his old friend, Judge C. C. Stoner of this city. It was their first meeting in twenty-five years. Monday evening the Orange County Jewelers' Association held a banquet at the Den O'Sweets. It was followed by a business meeting. Ten members were in attendance. The subject of principal discussion was centered on the problems in the jewelry business during war times.

Mrs. Grace Leinberger of Santa Ana will move to Orange today and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. W. N. Wright, of the Orange Inn, until she goes to Canada to visit relatives. Her husband, who is in the army, is stationed at Camp Kerny.

PATRIOTS PAY PROMPTLY
Wholly aside from the necessity and urgency incident to the war, there has been of late years and months a strong trend in trade toward C. O. D. In other words, it has been found to be mutually profitable for both merchants and their customers to do business on a cash basis.
In furtherance of the plan, we note the following resolution recently adopted by the state council of defense:

Extraordinary business conditions of today, resulting in rising costs, necessitate prompt cash payments as the patriotic duty of every citizen. Recognizing the prudence of keeping the business of the state in a solvent condition, we call the attention to those having credit accounts to the importance of meeting all obligations promptly, and request that retail merchants of the state and their customers co-operate to that end.
You can't dodge the bill collector any longer, call yourself a patriotic citizen and get away with it.
Patriots Pay Promptly.

AMERICA'S ANSWER TO AUTOCRACY

A little over a year ago there were some 3,000,000 United States bondholders; there are now somewhere between 20,000,000 and 25,000,000. Awakened patriotism has made the American people a saving people, a bond-buying people. The effect of the Liberty Loan on the national character, on our national life, on the home life is immeasurable—of incalculable benefit.
The Fourth Liberty Loan campaign will begin Saturday, September 28th, and close October 19th. No American doubts its success; no good American will fail to contribute to its success. The blood of our men fallen in Europe calls to us; our answer must be and will be worthy of them and our country.
The Fourth Loan will be a greater thing than the world ever attempted, but every American knows that this war duty will be met. Managers of the Oregon state campaign announce that no matter what size the loan, Oregon will go over the top the first week of the campaign. A similar statement comes from Washington. The patriotic response of Southern California in the Third Liberty Loan is positive assurance that Southern California will not be found lacking on this occasion, and a similar assurance may be made by the campaign managers for Southern California.
The Liberty Loan campaign is a duty today that will be met as all war duties are being met in this district. There will be no failure by the people to measure up to the courage and devotion of our men in Europe. Many of them have given up their lives; and every true American in Southern California will not hesitate one single minute to lend his money to back these boys up who are so valiantly offering the supreme sacrifice in your interests. Every loyal citizen of Southern California must know that the more bonds we buy the fewer boys need die.
On September 28th, double the subscription you made to the Third Loan. Let America's answer to autocracy be heard clear around the world.

THE REAL UNDESIRABLES

About one hundred leaders of the I. W. W. were arrested for what practically amounted to treason. They were given a full, long trial. They were found guilty and sentenced.
Then, along comes a man with a bomb. These I. W. W.'s were tried and convicted in the government building in Chicago. The officers of the court and the jury are not in the building. That makes no difference to the man. He throws his bomb in and kills or wounds scores of people.
It is a typical I. W. W. thing to do.
When we are not gritting our teeth over the beast-like conduct of the Bolsheviks in Russia, we are tempted, at times, to laugh at the silliness of some of their ideas. We do not think, and perhaps we do not know, that the I. W. W.'s in this country are teaching the same things. They want whatever anybody else has and they think the way to get it is to strike, to damage or destroy what we own, to tire us out so that we will commit suicide or in some way remove ourselves from the world, leaving them to take over what we possess.
You, for instance, are 60 years old. You have worked and worked and saved and saved until you have a neat, six-room house with a little garden out back. You have got your furniture paid for and a $40 phonograph in the parlor and a swing couch on the porch.
Mr. I. W. W. comes along. He has never worked a day in his life. He says: "I don't have these things. You do. Get out and let me have them." You laugh. He pours coal oil over the back steps and touches a match to it and goes on his way rejoicing.
However I. W. W. leaders and their paid attorneys may lie about it, that is the spirit of the movement.
It has been found over and over again, by practical results, that the I. W. W. movement is not a movement to help the working man rise, but a movement to throw down every one who has any property whatever.
The leaders don't give a tinker's dam whether they win a strike or not. But if they succeed in creating a strike which results in turmoil and the destruction of property, incidentally giving them a few days' or weeks' living at the expense of the strikers, they are tickled to death.
The particular I. W. W. leaders convicted were accused of having taught the destruction of property necessary to conduct the war. They were convicted of having preached the destruction of wheat, which is the key to success in this war. They recognized no allegiance to the flag and they jeered at those who showed patriotism. No real I. W. W. among them would, in seriousness, deny these charges.

The fact that they were, after being convicted, sentenced to the penitentiary, was no cause for bomb throwing. These men, considering their offenses, escaped lightly, when they were only sentenced to confinement in prison.

"YOUR BOY AND MINE"

If one touch of Nature makes all the world akin, then the present war is relating fathers and mothers in a very real and sympathetic way.
"Your boy!" How easy it is to advise and exhort and moralize on this subject to a neighbor. But when you say, "My boy," it is an altogether different matter. Then the heart throbs and the eye dims, and we think and feel for the other parent. When the world war demands your own flesh and blood, you know what it is to pay "the last full measure of devotion."
It is worth while to make this supreme gift for world liberty, but those who give in this fashion can have little patience or toleration for slackers and profiteers. When fathers and mothers are making this supreme sacrifice, those who give only money or who invest in Liberty Bonds, have little room to congratulate themselves; while the hoarder should hide his head in shame and the profiteer should be put where he belongs. If you have not given a son to fight for freedom and truth, any other giving short of the last possible dollar, the last waking hour, the last ounce of strength, must fail of full measure. Comparisons may be invidious or even odious, but the giving of "your boy and my boy" ought to challenge every true patriot to give of whatever he may have to his limit.
And when we speak of parents, we must not forget the wives and sweethearts and sisters who are in the same class, and who have made the supreme sacrifice.

Just Groans and Grins

ANCIENT HISTORY
Jack was unusually keen and quick-witted. All of the young women of the store in which he worked teased him, but seldom with profit.
"Oh, Jack," said one of them one day, "it is a good thing you're only fifteen while I'm twenty-three, or I'd set my cap for you."
"Yes, you're twenty-three! You were twenty-three the year milk was five cents a quart."

EASY TO IDENTIFY
A wild-eyed, disheveled-looking woman burst into the local police station.
"My husband has been threatening to drown himself for some time," she cried, hysterically, "and he's been missing now for two days. I want you to have the canal dragged."
"Anything peculiar about him by which he can be recognized, supposing we find the body?" inquired the inspector.
The woman hesitated, and seemed at a loss for a minute or two. Then a look of relief slowly overspread her face.
"Why, yes," she exclaimed at last; "he's deaf!"

BUSINESS MANAGER
"You'll have to work or fight, Rastus."
"Dey can't touch me, sah. I'se de manager ob a fambly laundry."
"What's the name of the laundry?"
"Martha."

REASON WAS CLEAR
A small boy was asked: "How is it your father always wins money when he plays cards, but invariably loses when he backs horses?"
Very promptly came the reply: "Please, sir, father can't shuffle the horses."

ONE FOR EACH
Mrs. Houlihan—Wan divorce would be no good; Oi want two av them.
Lawyer—What do you mean?
Mrs. Houlihan—Moike do be livin' a dooble loife.

HIS METHOD
Waiter (hinting for a tip)—And how did you find the steak, sir?
Diner—Oh, I just moved that little piece of potato and there it was.—Boy's Life.

HAD BEEN NOTICED
"My motto is: 'Never give up.'"
"I noticed that when the Red Cross people came around."

HERE AND THERE
He finished a long explanation about being late.
"I don't believe a word of it," declared his wife.
"There's where you're wrong. Several words of it are true."

Observations

Hindenburg, say all the war experts, has been caught napping right along by Foch. Recalling the many rumors about the old man, we suggest this epitaph: "Not dead, but napping."
Nearly all the railroad companies are reporting July earnings that show an increase in both gross and net over July, 1917. This must be a great disappointment to our old-fashioned railroad presidents.
Our esteemed contemporary, the Cleveland Press, says John D. Rockefeller saved a gallon of gasoline by walking to church last Sunday. "What," asks the fellow at the next desk, "do you suppose he did with it?" Our guess is that he sold it Monday.
New York City now has five railway ticket offices, while before the government took over the lines there were forty-eight. This shows how extravagant the government is—not!
German ships interned at Antofagusta, Chile, have been wrecked by their crews. This is the first German naval victory we have heard of for several years.

PRICE OF A SHAVE LIFTED FIVE CENTS, NOW TWENTY CENTS

Haircut, Too, Takes a Jump of a Nickel, Shampoo Stays In Tracks

Shaves and haircuts have taken a jump. Each finds that it has been hoisted a nickel.
Shaves that were fifteen cents are now twenty, and haircuts have gone from thirty-five cents to forty cents.
The ten-cent shave shops have gone to fifteen cents and have raised a nickel on haircuts.
The barber-shop proprietors and their employees have been hesitating on the brink of a raise for some months past. In a lot of other cities the shaving fraternity took a firm grip on the elevator some time ago and got a lift to the next floor. Santa Ana barbers however, contented themselves with taking a hoist on haircuts from twenty-five cents to thirty-five cents. That was only a few weeks ago. They remained doubtful as to what they ought to do with shaves until this week they climbed the nickel stairs, and have been gently breaking the news to their patrons.
The shampoo and similar operations of that kind were not changed in price. Only the regular shave and the haircut took the hop. Neck shaves remain at five cents in the shops that have been charging for neck shaves.

ORANGE APPROPRIATES $250 FOR MONUMENT

ORANGE, Sept. 12.—The sum of $250 was appropriated by the city council Tuesday evening for the war memorial fund, following the appeal for a public monument to the men who die in the war against Germany. The appropriation will probably be used as the foundation for the monument fund, to be steadily increased until the time for erecting the memorial arrives.
It is the intention in creating the fund to leave it open for contributions from the neighboring communities of El Modena, Olive, Villa Park, West Orange and McPherson.
Through co-operation of this sort a more substantial and desirable monument could be financed.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

All Unions of Orange County
Invited to Hear Mrs. Irvine, State President

There will be an all-day meeting in Birch Park Tuesday, the 17th, to which an invitation has been extended to all the Unions of Orange county to attend and participate.

There will be an address by the state president, Mrs. Stella B. Irvine, and one by the county president, Mrs. Marie Yoeman, also brief talks by other speakers and presidents of the unions. A fine program will be presented at both morning and afternoon sessions.

At noon a picnic luncheon will be spread on the tables under the trees, where a social hour will be enjoyed. Coffee will be served by the ladies of the Belle Rogers Union, but each lady will take lunch for one and all will be arranged on the tables by a committee in charge.

A general invitation is extended to all who are interested in the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union; and those who are not interested are urged to attend and hear the state president explain the great war service these women are doing, and the many departments of educational, charitable and reformatory work which they have conducted these many years past.

The question, "Will the W. C. T. U. disband when National Prohibition is established by law?" will probably be answered by those at the head of the organization in a manner satisfactory to all.

REGISTRATION MOVING AHEAD WITHOUT JARS

Enrollment For New Draft Is Proceeding Just Like Clockwork

In Orange county registration under the new draft is proceeding like clockwork everywhere. Nothing has happened to mar the smoothness of the registration. There have been no jars or scenes or disturbances.

Men have walked cheerfully to the registration places. Registrars everywhere report the greatest of good will and patriotic spirit among those who have come to the places of registration. There seems to be no hanging back.

Places for registration will be open until 9 o'clock tonight. Many of the registrars say that they are expecting few registrations this evening. In most of the places registration was early.

HIGH TIDE REPORTED AT NEWPORT TODAY

Reports reaching Santa Ana shortly after noon today were to the effect that the sand spit at Newport Beach was being pounded hard by high waves—a tidal wave, as it was expressed by some excited people.

Lew Wallace stated at 3:45 this afternoon that there had been no flood in Newport proper and no damage had been done. The only thing unusual there was a freak current. The waves were a little high, but the water had not gone over the sidewalks, nor had it done any damage to the sidewalks. Many people drove down to see the ocean on its rampage.

It was reported that some of the streets at Balboa were under water, but this could not be verified although effort was made to get in touch with parties there before the Register went to press.

NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

Among the thirty-six men who have been graduated from the field artillery officers' training school at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., the names of Richard F. Bird of Los Angeles and John H. Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Curtis, of Anaheim, appear. Richard Bird is the grandson of Mrs. M. O. Kellogg of West Anaheim.

The Orange city council took its first preliminary step Tuesday evening toward financing a municipal building for Orange. An ordinance amendment creating a fund for purchase of a site and erection of a building was up for a second reading and passage or rejection at the next regular meeting.

A fitting celebration of the second selective draft call will be held at the Christian church at Orange this evening at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Lloyd Darsie of this city, who has been for six months with the boys in the Army Training Camps, will give the address on "The Spirit of the Boys in the Camps." Two thousand feet of U. S. war film will be shown. The music will all be of a patriotic nature.

To Carl G. Strock, the jeweler, the Register tenders sincere apology. A few days ago the jeweler of Santa Ana, including Mr. Strock, responded very liberally to the request of Provost Marshal General Crowder for co-operation in advertising Registration Day. By an error in this office in the publication of the advertisement, Mr. Strock's name was omitted in giving the jeweler's credit. Of course the jeweler was not seeking credit, and not a word of complaint has come from Mr. Strock or any of the jeweler's. But it is customary and right to give credit to those who subscribe the funds for patriotic publicity, and we are glad to do Mr. Strock justice in this instance.

John T. Hutchinson, field secretary of the National Council Insurance Federation, will be in Santa Ana tomorrow, and at some time during the day, yet to be determined, will address all local insurance men who can be present at a meeting which will be called.

Directors of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon and accepted the new walnut houses from the contractors, Kidder & Shipp. The machinery is now being installed by George W. Metcalf and will be all in place by next week.

The Anaheim Band will be directed for the remainder of the season by Frank Harris, conductor of the Santa Ana Elks' Band. He will make his first appearance this evening, when the following program will be given at the band stand at Lemon and Center streets, Anaheim.

Coleman Hargett, son of Mrs. W. S. Rose of 918 Lacy street, arrived home today on furlough from Vancouver Barracks, to which place he was sent several weeks ago as a limited service man. Recently he underwent an operation for appendicitis, and his furlough came as soon as he was able to leave the hospital. He is to report at Vancouver on September 28.

Swiss Doctor Reports Seeing 100 Soldiers In Germany Who Refused to Go

PARIS, Sept. 12.—German soldiers who would rather be shot than go to the front were seen by a Swiss doctor who has just returned to Switzerland from Germany, it was learned here today.

"A few days ago," said this doctor, "I saw one hundred soldiers arguing with their officers. They objected to going to the front. At a given signal the men opened their vests, showing their breasts and shouted, 'Shoot! Shoot!' We are not going to the front."

STANDARD IS DOWN 2900 FEET, HOPE FOR SPOUTER

Liberty Hole Down 2000 Feet In Good Oil Sand; Oil Prospects Are Very Bright

HARPER, Sept. 12.—The Standard Oil well on Monday was down 2900 feet, finding heavy gas pressure which may be the forerunner of a spouter. Between this well and the Liberty well there is some wonder which will get to pumping oil first. There are very sanguine hopes that both wells will prove up a good oil territory on the mesa. When this is proven and Newport harbor is developed, with an oil pipe line connecting the two, Orange county's commercial assets will go "over the top" with a rush.

Liberty Prespects Promising

The stock owners of the Liberty Petroleum Company are all, on high-heeled shoes now over oil prospects—in fact, it is a long way ahead of a prospect for the hole on Monday was down 1975 feet, the last 80 feet being in good oil sand which was growing better every foot of the way. Hats will go up all over the mesa and a vigorous hurrah will be heard when she comes in a prolific producer.

HENNEY DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE, DECIDED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—Democratic leaders of California today had voted Francis J. Henney as the party's candidate for governor.

All that remains to be done is to find some way to put Henney's name on the ballot.

Fifty-seven state central committee-men, some of them with proxies in their pockets, adopted a resolution late yesterday directing the secretary of the committee to "certify to the secretary of state" that Francis J. Henney had been selected a state Democratic candidate.

The decision came after Sidney Van Wyck, a Rolph supporter, had left the meeting with forty proxies in his pocket, declaring loudly that no quorum was present.

Supporters of Thomas Lee Woolwine started some opposition by declaring Woolwine was the only dyed-in-the-wool Democrat who ran for the nomination.

Meantime a test case is on file before the state supreme court which, if the court decides the state primary law is unconstitutional, might turn James Rolph on the Democratic ticket as candidate by virtue of the fact that he received the highest number of Democratic votes cast.

MEDILL M'CORMICK GETS G. O. P. NOMINATION

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Congressman Medill McCormick is the Republican candidate for senator from Illinois, according to practically complete returns from yesterday's primary elections. His opponent will be Senator James Hamilton Lewis, now in Europe.

McCormick's plurality of from 50,000 to 60,000 was rolled up in the state outside of Chicago. The city gave its plurality to Mayor William Hale Thompson. The mayor carried Chicago by about 15,000. George E. Foss, third Republican candidate, polled about one-third the McCormick vote of 180,000.

Senator Lewis was re-nominated in a landslide. In Chicago alone with one-half the votes counted he polled 59,888 to 3812 for one opponent and 3876 for another.

Republican voters nominated Congressman William E. Mason and former Governor Richard Yates for congressman at large. Yates got the larger vote, most of it from outside the city. M. H. Cleary and W. E. Williams are Democratic nominees for the same office.

GERMAN SUBMARINE PROBABLY WAS SUNK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The submarine which torpedoed the British troop ship Forster, with Americans aboard, was evidently destroyed by the transport convoy.

The navy department is reticent on the subject today, especially as Great Britain has asked news of the torpedoing be issued first from London. Secretary Daniels, according to committee on public information members, had not been advised by his officers concerning the case up to the time that press inquiries reached him, though it is known that the government had the information previously.

Letters From Men in Service

WHAT GRIZZLIES ARE DOING OVER IN FRANCE

"Billy" Titchenal Writes Interestingly of Sights and Activities

"Billy" Titchenal, who went over with the Grizzlies, in which there are a number of Santa Ana men, has written his wife a number of letters giving interesting descriptions of the country the boys have passed through and the experiences they have. His latest letter, written at Camp De Meucun Morbihan, France, on August 20, gives an insight as to what the home boys are doing. What Titchenal has been doing and the experiences he has been having are the same as the other Santa Ana men with the company. His address is Battery D, 144th Field Artillery, American E. F., A. P. O. 779.

His letter follows:

We are settled at last in our training camp. Since we arrived here we have been busy cleaning up and of course have not seen much of the camp. What we have seen of it, however, is very pretty. There are lots of trees and the ground is covered with blue grass and clover. There are thickets of wild blackberries everywhere and the berries are delicious.

We were several days coming from the cars and the cars were crowded. You have seen moving pictures of the little cars they have in France with the doors opening on the sides. Those were the kind we traveled in. One compartment will seat eight people comfortably. There were seven of us in each compartment and in there we had to eat and sleep. You can picture us trying to sleep, three on the floor in the narrow aisle and four on the seats. Over our heads on one side of the compartment was a shelf about one foot wide and nine feet long. This is where we kept some of our packs but the first night out I slept up there. At least, I tried to sleep. I could not turn over for fear of falling out and if I raised up I would bump my head for there was about sixteen inches of space between the shelf and the roof of the car. There was a rail along the edge of this shelf that hit me on my right side and I was so stiff in the morning I could hardly get out. It was tiresome riding all day at a snail's pace. The engineers here seem to be afraid to run their engines fast. We had a jolly bunch in our compartment and we laughed away our troubles.

We were issued army rations for the trip. Here is our menu:

Breakfast—Bread and jam, corned beef, water.

Lunch—Bread, beans, corned beef, water.

Dinner—Bread and jam, beans, corned beef and tomatoes, mixed together, water.

Don't you think that is some menu? We were all craving coffee but it was impossible to get. One morning we did have some good coffee, and believe me, it was a treat.

When we stop to think of the hardships that the men who came at first had to endure, we are treated like kings to what they were, so we are not grumbling.

Believe me, dear, when we come home, we will know how to appreciate a home as we never did before. When I think of you and the little daughter so far away from me, I feel like working all the harder. I am going to get all there is out of this training so that if we should ever go to the front, I can do my bit and be proud of what I have done. I know that is what you would like to have me do.

Of course, we have not seen much of France yet, but what I have seen I like very much. It is a beautiful country. The hills are mostly covered with forests and the ground covered with ferns, blue grass and clover. Instead of fences like we have at home, they use stone or a hedge of wild blackberries or gooseberries.

The country is suffering now for lack of men to cultivate the soil, but even so, they are doing better than some of our farmers. The fields that are under cultivation are yielding wonderful crops. I never saw so much grain taken off of land in my life. The truck gardens also look thrifty.

We have plenty of straw for our bedticks and the sleep I had last night was worth a month's wages.

This morning it seemed like dear old California when I got up. We are near the western coast of France and it was cool and foggy just as it is at home this time of the year.

W. S. S. "REGISTER EARLY," L. A. SLOGAN TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—"Register early" was the slogan in Los Angeles today.

Long before the registration places opened at 7 o'clock this morning lines of registrants were forming. At many places when registration began there were lines nearly a block long.

Many fathers walked to the registration offices with their 18 or 19-year-old sons, all equally eager to get down on the rolls of those who will swat kaiserism.

In Los Angeles city 65,000 were expected to register and in the county outside the city there will be 25,000 more, it is estimated.

W. S. S. GOVERNMENT GETS TOMATOES

OXNARD, Sept. 12.—The government has commandeered the entire season's output of solid pack tomatoes of the McCrosky Packing Company of Hueneme, and as a result the company will put most of its contracted crop into that instead of into purees. This requires additional labor, and the company is employing a large number of women in the work.

ANTIQUE CUSTOM OF INTEREST TO TAYLOR

Tells of Town Crier Operating in City Over There

Corporal George Merl Taylor, with headquarters company of the 36th Infantry, writes his mother, Mrs. F. B. Taylor, as follows:

Somewhere in France, Aug. 15. We are still billeted in a little French village, and there isn't much news to write about, except that I am well and am enjoying myself. The first few days we were here we had some damp, showery weather, but for over a week we have been having beautiful weather and a clear sky. I go for a swim in the creek two or three times a week and take walks around the hills enjoying the beautiful French landscapes.

Yesterday evening we enjoyed a show put on by some of the boys, music and comedy, given on an outdoor stage, with a hillside covered with green grass for the audience to sit on.

The French language is still as much Greek to me as it was when I arrived here, and the popular costumes of the people are still a source of interest. Among other things is the town crier, who goes around with a drum every day, stopping in different parts of town to beat the latest orders or laws, at the top of his voice.

I can't tell what he says. It always sounds the same to me. But his speech usually lasts a minute or so at each stop. Then there is a fellow who goes through the town every morning blowing a horn, to collect all the sheep of the village and take them to pasture, and in the evening he herds them back. The children of the village herd the cows out to pasture in small bunches. One small boy or girl herds a dozen or so cattle.

The money system is somewhat different from that of the United States. You know the franc is the unit of the money system, valued at about 18 cents, so a few dollars buy a lot of francs, and it seems to make it go farther.

HUNDREDS JOIN IN COMMUNITY SINGING FOR LIBERTY

Spirit of Patriotism Prevails At Big Initial Feast of Song

"WE'RE BACKING THE BOYS," SAYS WRITER

Strong Addresses Feature the Gathering of Santa Anans at Park

With the spirit of patriotism as a predominating feature, last night the first of the Liberty Loan evenings for community singing was held at Birch Park, and its success was pronounced. Hundreds of people gathered at Birch Park and joined in the community exercises.

"You have all enjoyed this evening's program," said Chairman R. L. Bisby, in closing. "Why? Because you have all had a part in it. That is exactly the way we are to feel about winning this war; we are to have a part in its winning."

In opening the program, the chairman suggested that women might adopt the custom of standing at salute attention, as soldiers do, while "The Star Spangled Banner" was being sung. A few adopted the suggestion.

It was this song that opened the program, Harry Garstang leading in the singing.

The speakers took today's registration as their theme for the evening. The chairman said the registration of 13,000,000 men would show the Kaiser just what we think of him.

It Is Their Right

"It is the righteous privilege of Americans to be enrolled in the draft," said P. L. Tope in his address.

Tope said that when the savagery of militarism destroyed the Lusitania there could no longer be any doubt as to where the sentiments of the Americans stood. He said that "that hell-born, diabolical act awakened the sleeping patriotism of a hundred million men and women."

"We are in this war," said he, "not because we want conquest and wealth, but for the sake of freedom. Tomorrow we will register in order to raise the remainder of an army of 5,000,000 men."

Join in Chorus

"We're One for Uncle Sam," is the predominating sentiment of "Your Flag and My Flag," sung by Mrs. H. M. Sammis, whose clear, strong voice was wonderfully well fitted for leading the big audience in the singing over and again of the chorus by those gathered for the feast of song.

Greatest in World

Rev. M. L. Pearson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Orange, declared that the registration today is the most stupendous event in the history of the world, for it spells the doom of militarism.

"We are going out in the great cause of vindication for the sake of humanity," said he. "After tomorrow's registration, no power can stop us in our march upon Berlin. Every man and woman and child belongs to the great American army somewhere. Tomorrow we register 13,000,000 men, but we also mobilize back of them the spirit and determination of 88,000,000 men, women and children."

He said that this war would not quit until the Kaiser and those with him responsible for the war shall pay the penalty of death by hanging or death by a firing squad. He reviewed the deliberate planning for the war, as exposed by the German head of steel plants. He declared the contract entered into between the Kaiser and eighty business men of Germany to be the most diabolical, blackest chapter in all history.

"America must put an end forever to the possibility of that sort of thing," said he.

"If I can't cross the ocean and spoil the German, I can find him nearer and swat him at my door," was his declaration as to the treatment of traitors at home.

To the Front

"To the Front," sung admirably by James Nickolls, was followed by the singing of a song, the words of which were written by Mrs. J. E. Tillotson, to the tune of "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

A chorale, reading thus, was sung by the audience:

"Where are our boys tonight?
O, where are our boys tonight?
They're off and away with the old U. S. A.

Are we backing our boys tonight?" The answering chorus was:

Red Cross Activities

According to the new rulings, the size must be put on everything shipped, such as large, medium, etc. In garments for young people, the age, as 12-year-old size, etc.

Mrs. C. P. Boyer is the very efficient folder of garments during Mrs. A. H. Lyon's absence on a vacation.

Santa Ana has just cause to be proud of her work, as it compares most favorably with the models sent out from San Francisco.

Mrs. McLeish, chairman of the Bureau of Chapter Production, was complimentary to our chapter and inspired us with confidence. She cannot promise us regular work as we are so far from Washington. She said that the work might be rather spasmodic but expected, in fact knew, our chapter would rise to the occasion whenever the demands came.

All sewing must be finished and in Saturday, September 14. Also all the sweaters must be completed and in on the same date. This may take hustling but is necessary.

Tustin is doing very fine knitting, in short their work of all kinds is very satisfactory.

Shipments were made last week of 75 sweaters, 180 pairs of socks, 150 girls' gowns, 300 chemises.

Shop Notes

Donations of guava, peaches, figs, tokay grapes and vegetables have been thankfully received at the shop, and have found ready sale.

When not busy with customers, the women in the shop are diligently sewing rags which are woven into useful rugs. Orders are taken for rugs in various colors and some in wonderful patterns are being made for the shop. Anyone who has rags sewed for rugs may leave same at the shop, to be made into rugs, at a reasonable price.

Have you seen the pretty pine-needle baskets now on sale? They are unbreakable and therefore easily mailed and desirable for gifts to be sent east in this way. Do your Christmas shopping early!

A five, ten and twenty-five cent counter at the shop, upon which are for sale many articles worth much more than the prices asked.

This is just as much a woman's war as a man's, and each day brings forth some new demand for the efficient services of women. Just at present the Red Cross calls for 300 women motor drivers for overseas service. There are hundreds of strong, healthy girls over 25 in this division who can qualify. A knowledge of mechanics and traffic laws, driving license, first aid, and physical fitness are among the requirements. Make inquiry of Director of Motor Service, Pacific Division, American Red Cross, Flood Building, San Francisco.

The American Red Cross nurse means home and mother to the wounded soldier in the base hospital in France. He can talk to her—she can understand him and his slang. Her training gives her the opportunity, her woman's tenderness and devotion the means, of helping to keep up the morale of the army and navy, and bring America closer to the boys fighting and dying "over there." The American boys NEED American nurses. Only the kindred spirit aroused by a common language can bridge the three thousand odd miles between France and the Statue of Liberty.

Women who really want to go to Europe in war work should investigate the call for nurses' aids made by the American Red Cross. There is urgent need for this class of workers and the time of preparation is so brief that it especially appeals to those who earnestly desire to get in actual military service. The qualifications, which include first aid, elementary hygiene and home care of the sick, and 240 hours training in an accredited hospital, can be had through your Red Cross chapter nursing committee. The Red Cross asks you to investigate.

American Grown Sugar Cverts Serious Shortage,

Four Billion Pounds Chief Factor is Preventing Famine

THE sugar beet farms of the Central and Western states and the cane fields of Louisiana and the island territories of the country which are expected to produce over four billion pounds of sugar this season will be our main reliance in averting a serious sugar famine during the latter half of the present year according to figures just compiled and published by Facts About Sugar, a leading authority in the industry.

Statistics collected by the International Sugar Committee of which George M. Rolph, head of the Sugar Division of the Food Administration, is chairman, show that during the scarcity that existed at the end of last year over 85 per cent of all the sugar distributed to the American public came from domestic sugar fields. Of this amount a little less than 50 per cent was supplied by the beet sugar factories, 32 per cent by Louisiana and the remainder came from Hawaii, the Philippines, Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The production of this large amount of home grown sugar resulted in giving every person in the country an average of seventeen pounds of sugar during the final quarter of the year as against a normal consumption of twenty-one pounds for this period. Without the sugar grown in the United States the average amount for each person would have been only two and a half pounds for the three months.

over 7000 is complete. Such things make us realize why they need so many nurses at the front.

Even the stress of a world war does not cause an American officer to neglect his men because they are disabled. General Pershing recently visited American Red Cross hospitals in Paris, told the men they had fought splendidly and that America was proud of them. Personal conversations with the men in many of the wards made "Black Jack" very popular and during the visit he met and greeted a number of men who had fought under him in Mexico and the Philippines. Nurses and doctors also came in for expressions of appreciation, and Major James H. Perkins, commissioner of the American Red Cross, who accompanied him, was asked to convey personal messages to those he could not talk to himself in his limited time.

The Red Cross is doing wonderful work among the civilians in Italy, and especial attention is given children. More than one thousand children were completely outfitted in Naples during May, and in June 1578 were clothed. This enables many children to attend school who otherwise would be unable to do so. It is in making such things as education and health available to the masses that the Red Cross looks ahead and makes provision for future citizenry.

Mrs. L. A. Mayfield requests that all members of her class meet next Thursday morning.

Saturday Mrs. Jeanette Magill and Dr. Perry Magill are to take an auto load of jellies and jams to the Red Cross hospital at Camp Kearny. The assistance of one or two men in packing the boxes into the automobile will be needed. Anyone who can help in that work Saturday morning for an hour or two should at once telephone to 593-W.

HUNTINGTON BEACH WAR-TIME FEATURES ARE ARRANGED FOR H. B. FALL FAIR

Many Attractions Planned, Including Military Motor Guard, Airplane Stunts

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 12.—The Fall Fair is growing in such proportions as to assume almost the position of an Orange county fair. J. A. Armitage, president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, has recently made a personal visit to most of the localities in this county in the interest of the fair. He says that many of the local chambers are to put on a splendid exhibit of industries most prominent in their respective localities.

October 1 will be merely an entry day while the fair proper will open on Wednesday, October 2, with a parade headed by the Liberty tank escorted by a military motorcycle guard, a band, city and county officials, etc. This is to be known as Liberty Day.

R. L. Bisby of Santa Ana has arranged with the military authorities to have the airplanes stop at the fair on Friday, October 4, and to give a proper demonstration. Military bands are being provided. Friday will also be known as Orange County Day.

Saturday will be known as Red Cross Day. The local chapter is making great plans for a great patriotic day. The Santa Ana chapter will be asked to aid.

The county, state and the Federal Government are all being called upon for assistance in making this the best fair ever held in this section of Orange county.

Six a. m. Club Active

There is a rather unique organization in Huntington Beach known as the Six O'clock Club. It holds its meetings daily on the beach in the early morning—all members being attired in proper bathing suits. No session has failed for lack of attendance for over three months. The club is now bending its efforts to induce the Huntington Beach Company to keep its "plunge" open for bathing all winter. A petition is now being circulated asking the company to place a canvas top on its plunge and to slightly heat the water. The idea is to sell enough tickets to the plunge to pay the company for making the necessary improvements or at least to partly reimburse the owners. The people seem quite enthusiastic for the reason that aside from Long Beach there is no plunge open along this section of the coast in the winter time. Huntington Beach needs more attractions of this kind in both winter and summer.

Ask Beach Life Guard

Another agitation being started by the club is to induce the city to make the beach safe for bathers next season. An effort will be made to have a life guard on duty for three or four months during the summer. This beach has a record of only one drowning in its history and it must keep its present good name clear. It is also quite probable that an effort will be made to have a large rope or two run out several hundred feet at Fifth, Eighth, Twelfth and Seventeenth streets. The beach is becoming more popular every year. This year's attendance was 50 per cent in excess of any other year in the opinion of many who have watched the crowds here.

Home-Coming Day, Oct. 5

A Home-Coming Day will be held in Huntington Beach Saturday, October 5. Postmaster DeLapp has been placed in charge of this undertaking. DeLapp, on account of his official position and also on account of his long residence in the community, is best fitted to make this a great success. Responses are now being received from many old-timers that they will be on hand that day. A very interesting program is expected as most of these old settlers will be given an opportunity to make a few remarks.

Fishing Reported Good

The pier is lined with fishermen these days. Judge Warner, one of the best fishermen of this locality, is out of town on his annual vacation. The boys seem to be taking advantage of his absence to reel in a few good ones that would ordinarily get into the judge's basket.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—"Sweetheart, I am lonesome and have learned to love you. Please ring me up," is the note attached to a bouquet of flowers which William H. Clay tossed into the lap of Policeman T. J. Connel, who was sitting in his automobile with his daughter.

The judge sent Clay where he will be no longer lonesome and where they can't ring him up. He will resume his lonesome life in three months.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL SPEED UP POLY COURSES FOR YOUTHS OVER 18

School Children Must Be Vaccinated or Present Certificate

The state law regarding vaccination of school children is to be enforced. This is the decision of the Board of Education, after taking the matter under consideration. City Health Officer J. I. Clark has informed the board that it is imperative that the law be enforced.

F. L. Andrews, secretary of the board, today issued the following notice:

Owing to the existence of smallpox in different parts of our city and county during the past year, necessitating the closing of the schools in one district, the Santa Ana Board of Education, upon the request of Dr. John I. Clark, city health officer, has decided as a precautionary measure to enforce the state law regarding vaccination.

The state law provides that "within five days after any child or person shall be enrolled in any school, public or private, sectarian or non-sectarian, such child or person shall file with the teacher or principal, who may be in charge of such school, either a certificate signed by a duly licensed and practicing physician showing that such child or person has been successfully vaccinated (giving date thereof) within seven years prior to the date when same shall be filed, or a certificate signed by the health officer or board of health, stating that such child or person has been examined by him and has presented satisfactory evidence that he or she has been successfully vaccinated (giving date thereof) within such period of seven years or in lieu of the certificate provided for (above) such child or person may file annually a statement in writing, signed by his or her parent or guardian, stating that such parent or guardian is conscientiously opposed to the practice of vaccination and will not consent to the vaccination of such child or person, or the certificate of a duly licensed and practicing physician stating that the physical condition of such child or person is, at the time, such that vaccination would seriously endanger the life or health of such child or person, and thereupon such child or person shall be exempt from the provisions of this act."

"Any child or person who shall fail, neglect or refuse to file a certificate or statement within said period of five days shall thereupon be excluded from admission to attendance upon, from the benefits of, and from service in connection with such institution, until such time as he or she shall file such certificate or statement, and it shall be the duty of every teacher or principal in charge over such institution so to exclude such child or person."

Attention is called to the fact that the law is mandatory, upon school officials and that the law applies to pupils, teachers, janitors and all persons employed in the service of the schools. Each physician will furnish a certificate of vaccination and the principal of each school will be supplied with blank certificates for those who have conscientious objections to vaccination.

SURPRISE WELL IS 1,000 BARRELS OIL

BREA, Sept. 12.—After fishing for three weeks trying to get out a string of tools lost at a depth of 4127 feet, the Brea Canyon Oil Company decided to leave the tools in the hole and bring the well in. The results were beyond the wildest expectations. Instead of getting a small well as was figured on account of having to leave the tools in the hole, the well started off under a pressure of 750 pounds and a thousand barrels a day.

The production is coming from shale, as very little oil sand was drilled through, just a few feet in the bottom.

The No. 29 well is the biggest well brought in in the canyon district this year, and is of great credit to the company.

The well is of considerable interest to the geologist. Number 14, completed a few months ago, came into the oil sand at a depth of 3600 feet, and is located only 50 feet away from the new wonder that is making the thousand-barrel production from the shale, no oil sand being struck until a depth of 600 feet deeper was drilled.

As the pressure on the new well is high it is thought that it will be a long-lived producer.

'Rush' Classes Provided to Enable Registrants to Enter College Earlier

Information for Boys Over 18

Every boy of 18 is asking himself these days how he may best serve his country. For the boy who has graduated from high school the answer is relatively easy. Uncle Sam is offering him college training at his expense with an opportunity to prepare himself for that branch of active service for which he is best fitted.

The government has authorized the establishment of units of the Students' Army Training Corps at Los Angeles Normal, Occidental, Pomona, University of Southern California and Throop, as well as at the University of California and Stanford. The general plan under which the corps will operate is as follows:

1. All young men who were planning to go to school this fall should carry out their plans and do so. Each should go to the college of his choice, matriculate, and enter as a regular student. He will, of course, also register with his local board on the registration day set by the President. As soon as possible after registration day, probably on or about October first, opportunity will be given for all the regularly-enrolled students to be inducted into the Students' Army Training Corps at the schools where they are in attendance. Thus the corps will be organized by voluntary induction under the Selective Service Act, instead of by enlistment as previously contemplated. The student, by voluntary induction, becomes a soldier in the United States Army, uniformed, subject to military discipline and with the pay of a private. In addition the Government will assume all charges for board, tuition and room. Officers, uniforms, rifles and such other equipment as may be available will be furnished by the War Department.

2. The student-soldiers will be given military instruction under officers of the Army and will be kept under observation and test to determine their qualification as officer-candidates, and technical experts such as engineers, chemists and doctors. After a certain period, the men will be selected according to their performance, and assigned to military duty in one of the following ways:

- (a) He may be transferred to a central officers' training camp.
- (b) He may be transferred to a non-commissioned officers' training school.
- (c) He may be assigned to the school where he is enrolled for further intensive work in a specified line for a limited specified time.
- (d) He may be assigned to the vocational training section of the corps for technical training of military value.
- (e) He may be transferred to a cantonment for duty with troops as a private.

The colleges will arrange their work in periods of three months, beginning October 1st, January 1st and April 1st, and new students may enter at the beginning of each of these periods. All of the above colleges with the exception of the University of California, Stanford and Throop, are waiving their usual matriculation requirements and admitting students on their high school diplomas. Although no favoritism will be shown boys in colleges, it is expected that those who are 18 will not be called into active service until the end of the college year.

The War Department has decided not to establish units of the S. A. T. C. at high schools, and has given up the plan of extending military instruction in such schools. The Government's instructions to boys over 18 still in high school, are to return to high school and "increase their physical, technical, and general efficiency." In view of these instructions it seems probable that the boys of 18 will be allowed to finish their course, although no definite statement to that effect has been made.

To enable boys who have not yet completed their high school course to enter college as promptly as possible, the Santa Ana High School is going to make arrangements to intensify certain courses so that those who would normally finish in February may complete their work in December, and those who would normally graduate next June may finish their course by March 31. The courses that will be thus "speeded up" are Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, Physics, Chemistry, Civics, Economics, U. S. History, English and French. Special instruction in military training will also be provided for. There were over sixty boys in high school last year who will be over 18 by September 12, many of whom will be qualified to take these intensive courses.

Principal Hammond of the High School has as complete information regarding details of the establishment of the S. A. T. C. units as is possible to obtain, and will be glad to consult with all who are interested.

News of Interest from Wintersburg

MISS MABEL ULRICH BECOMES BRIDE OF WALTER GRAHAM

Were Married at San Diego Preceding Graham's Departure for the East

WINTERSBURG, Sept. 10.—Wintersburg unexpectedly found a war bride in its midst Thursday evening with the return from San Diego of Mrs. Mabel Ulrich, better known to her many friends here as Miss Mabel Ulrich. Miss Mabel was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ulrich of this place and the ceremony uniting in marriage her and Walter Graham, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham, also of this place, occurred in San Diego Wednesday evening, prior to the groom's departure on Thursday for overseas duty.

The telegram was received on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Graham from their son, saying he would leave North Island on Thursday, so they immediately sent word to all the members of the family and plans were made and carried out to motor to San Diego Wednesday and remain over with him until his departure as it was possible for him to get leave for several hours.

The party composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham, Miss Ethel Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham, also of Puente and the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Burgess of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Graham, left from here Wednesday morning, accompanied by Miss Mabel Ulrich.

Not the slightest hint of a wedding was received by any of the party with the exception of Miss Ethel Graham, who was let in on the secret by the young couple and was the only member of the family present at the ceremony.

It is needless to say that they received a rousing reception from the remainder of the party when the news was divulged.

Graham ranks as second class aviation mechanic and has been in the service since January 6, having enlisted at that time and has since been in San Diego and North Island.

The party felt extremely lucky to be allowed the privilege of being with him as long as they were, he having leave from 5 o'clock Wednesday evening until 7:30 Thursday morning, when he reported for duty and was off again from 1 p. m. till 3, at which hour he entrained with a part of his company for Philadelphia.

One-half of his company left a week ago Wednesday for Philadelphia, where they are waiting for the forty-eight men who composed the remaining half, which left Thursday. They were given to understand that they would be in Philadelphia, a week, after which they would complete the journey to a point of embarkation and would eventually be assigned to duty in Ireland.

Mrs. Walter Graham returned Thursday evening with the remainder of the party, following the departure of her husband and the news of the recent wedding was divulged to her family, to whom it came also as a surprise, when she was accompanied into the house amid a shower of rice.

Mrs. Graham remained over night at home, leaving Friday morning to resume her duties as assistant in the Balboa post office.

Mrs. Ellis Davis and baby, who have been visitors at the C. N. Davis home, left Monday for their home at Hermosa Beach.

Mrs. Linnie Walton, morning operator for the Smetzer Home Telephone Company, is away for a month, her vacation having begun the first. Miss Grace McMillan, afternoon operator, is taking Mrs. Walton's hours and Miss Ina Clemens is afternoon operator. Mrs. Walton is at present with her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Edwards, at Westminster.

Mrs. E. R. Bradbury went to the Santa Ana hospital Thursday morning, where she underwent an operation for tumor of the neck. She stood the operation well and is now getting along nicely.

Mrs. Hathaway had as guests Friday and Saturday her sister, Mrs. Harris, and brother, of Covina.

Hostess to Queen Esthers

Miss Ethel Dwyer was hostess to the Queen Esther Circle on Tuesday evening, the meeting place having been changed from Mrs. A. H.

Moore's to Miss Dwyer's home that day. This is the first meeting of the circle since May and fourteen of the girls were present, all glad to get together once more. Miss Ethel Dwyer was in charge of the evening's program and "Spanish Work" was the topic under discussion.

Sixty-Eight Sugar Permits

Mrs. M. Ross had given out sixty-eight sugar permits up to Friday since her appointment to this work. A number of people have received two permits each, not taking their full allotment at one time and some who had received their full amount can now be allowed more since the new ruling came into effect, allowing a slight increase to 15 pounds to the person. Eighteen permits were issued last week.

Jellies and Jams Donated

The Wintersburg Red Cross auxiliary is doing splendidly in collecting jams and jellies requested for shipment to cantonments for sick soldiers and sailors. At Thursday's meeting thirty glasses had been turned in with numerous promises of more yet to come. As this auxiliary's allotment was twenty-five glasses, the quota will be far exceeded.

William Kettler, who is in training at North Island aviation field, arrived Thursday evening on a thirty-day furlough which he is spending on the ranches of his brothers, Emil and John Kettler.

Albert Kettler and wife spent the latter part of the week at the John Kettler home and the former is assisting with the ranch work.

Postpone School Opening

The Springdale school, which was scheduled to begin Monday, September 9, was postponed one week, until September 16.

A. Ruoff is cutting and piling his limas, of which he has in 105 acres.

J. J. Graham began threshing his bean crop at Puente the last week, taking his own threshing outfit from here. Mr. Graham is making the trip back and forward from home in his machine, work at both places requiring his attention. Mrs. Riley Graham and Miss Ethel Graham are staying at Puente and cooking for the threshing crew. Mrs. J. J. Graham accompanied her husband for the day Friday.

MRS. ALBERT KETTLER OPERATED UPON FOR APPENDICITIS

WINTERSBURG, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Albert Kettler is at the Garden Grove hospital where she underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix Monday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Kettler have been in from Blythe, where they reside, the latter for several weeks and the former a little over a week, and were staying at the homes of his brothers, Emil and John Kettler, while he assisted in the bean harvest. Mrs. Kettler felt the first pain in her side last Friday, but did not give up to consult a physician until Monday morning, at which time her husband took her to Garden Grove. The physician was not certain without further examination whether an operation would be necessary or not, so Mrs. Kettler remained at the hospital awaiting results from a consultation.

In the afternoon her temperature rose alarmingly and it was decided best to operate immediately and two physicians were called in to assist. Mrs. Kettler was doing nicely at the last account.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Crane entertained at their home Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hamilton, friends from Pomona. Saturday evening the Cranes and their guests motored to Long Beach and took in the "Pike."

Mrs. J. O. Pyle received a letter from her brother, William Keseman, Jr., who is a lieutenant at aviation at Ellington Field, Houston, Texas, that he would start for home on a furlough Monday of this week, so the family was eagerly looking forward to having him with them in a few days.

Conrad Worthy left Monday morning with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Boydon Hall, and Miss Pearl Porter of Huntington Beach, for a three-days' hunting trip in the mountains around Saugus. The party will be the guests of a friend of Mrs. Hall's who resides in that vicinity. They were expected home Wednesday evening.

Earl Pryor "Over There"

Mr. and Mrs. Pryor received the news the past week that their son,

Earl Pryor, has safely arrived on the other side. Pryor left Camp Kearny the first of July and it had been so many weeks since anything definite had been heard from him that the family were beginning to worry over his welfare.

J. O. Pyle has finished cutting and piling his bean crop here and is now beginning on a 20-acre crop which he has in at Garden Grove.

Mrs. M. J. Barton enjoyed a reunion Sunday of her family, each member in this state being present to partake of a sumptuous chicken dinner served by the mother. The dinner party was composed of the daughters, Mrs. Ella Forrest and Mrs. C. Ray Moore, the latter's family, the sons; George Taylor and family of Huntington, formerly of Buttonwillow, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor and family are at present staying with Mrs. Barton, while looking out for a location for their future home. Taylor disposed of his northern property before coming here and brought his livestock with him.

Mrs. Dave Johnson of Whittier visited Saturday and Sunday night at the home of her brother, W. W. Blaylock and family.

Miss Josephine Winters, who is at present employed in a Santa Ana cannery, spent Admission Day at home. The hosts of the "Silver Fox" Club were boys for the evening and furnished hearty refreshments of weiners and buns and marshmallows, the toasting of the weiners and marshmallows forming a pleasant mode of pastime.

About twenty young people were present and the evening passed quickly with jolly games and entertainment by Rev. Andrews with sleight-of-hand performances.

Miss Meade, who for five years was a teacher of the local school, having gained her first experience as primary teacher here, where she later became principal, will assume the duties of principal of the Spurgeon school of Santa Ana this year, having under her supervision eleven teachers, two of the kindergarten and nine of the higher grades. Miss Meade's friends here are delighted with her rapid advancement and success.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rogers and daughters, Dorothy and Rose, who have been visiting here from Holtville at the home of Mrs. Roger's sister, Mrs. Sam Talbert, went to Chino Saturday evening to spend over Sunday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Shrode, prior to leaving on their return trip home. WITH $100,000 SPENT WELL IS A FAILURE

BREA, Sept. 12.—Two years' work and the expenditure of $100,000 are figures that represent the Copia De Oro Oil Company's cost of searching for oil in the Little Brea Canyon district. After drilling to a depth of 3990 feet the conditions were of such an encouraging nature that it was decided to cement at 3809 feet and test the well. Previous to the cementing and test the hole showed considerable gas and the bailer brought up some good colors. On bailing down and testing out after the cementing the gas that had been such a promising feature during the drilling of the last three hundred feet disappeared entirely.

What became of the gas will always be a great mystery to the owners of the ill-fated well.

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

How It Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances

"Take plain bitro-phosphate" is the advice of physicians to thin, delicate, nervous people who lack vim, energy and nerve force, and there seems to be ample proof of the efficacy of this preparation to warrant the recommendation. Moreover, if we judge from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more

Miss Josephine Davis, reporting her own experience with BITRO-PHOSPHATE, says: "It is remarkable what it did for me. After a few days I began to regain my strength, felt full of life, capable of deep soundly and all my little troubles seemed to disappear. I gained twelve pounds in four weeks."

phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the bitro-phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION.—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, owing to its remarkable flesh growing properties it should not be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh. Adv.

Messerly, who have been spending the summer season at their cottage in East Newport, returned this week to their home at 826 South Burlington avenue in Los Angeles. Both Mr. and Mrs. Messerly regret that the season is at an end and were loathe to leave what they term as the most delightful beach on the coast.

ORGANIZATION
WESTMINSTER RESIDENTS

Next Year's Reunion Will Be Held on Labor Day; Many Pioneers Present

WESTMINSTER, Sept. 11.—The second annual reunion picnic of the early settlers of Westminister, held last Saturday at Anaheim Landing, was enjoyed by about one hundred persons. Seventy-four persons registered, but beside these were friends or relatives of those present who had never been Westminister residents. Some were present who were not there last year and some in attendance then were not present this year. Two of these, Rev. F. A. Field and W. T. House, had passed away, the former two weeks before, and the latter only the day before.

The time quickly passed in reviewing old-time friendships and a bountiful dinner was spread on tables in the upstairs hall. Just as they were about to be seated, an airplane landed near the electric track. It was said to be one of a group of a dozen or so flying from San Diego to Venice for a ball game between the aviators and the navy boys, and made a landing for more gasoline and to get their bearings, having mistaken Long Beach for Venice. This delayed dinner somewhat as many wished to see the bird of flight resume its journey.

Dinner being finished it was suggested that an organization of the company be made. Accordingly the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Neeta Marquis; first vice-president, John Y. Anderson; second vice-president, H. Larter; third vice-president, O. B. Byram; secretary, Mrs. J. F. Patterson; treasurer, Mrs. Inez T. Jones.

A number of impromptu after dinner talks were made, the first being by Jonathan Tibbet, who probably has been acquainted with this section longer than any one else present, El Monte being his birthplace. He remembered Rev. L. P. Webber making a visit at the home of his father when looking for a site for the colony he proposed to found, to whom his father suggested the present site. Mr. Tibbet told of early days when every man armed and when thousands of head of cattle roamed the plains, making traveling very unsafe. He also said he had been an Apache Indian scout, still bearing many marks of their vengeance, and had helped to take Geronimo in his stronghold in Arizona. He bought out over 6000 acres of squatters' claims between Westminister and Huntington Beach, the squatters having thirty days in which to take away all movable property. After two years he was compelled by the United States marshal to give it up, there being a dispute as to the boundary of a land grant, the squatters having claimed it was a strip of government land between two grants.

Mr. Tibbet stated he had a collection of old-time California relics valued at a quarter of a million dollars, now at Riverside. He is at present negotiating with the city council of one of the Los Angeles county beach towns to have it placed on public exhibition there.

It was a happy coincidence that R. E. Larter celebrated his birthday at this time and he was called on for a speech, to which he very pleasantly responded.

Mrs. May Webber Van Dyke, daughter of the founder of the colony, was present and was asked to stand up that the people might see her.

There was some discussion as to who was the first baby born in Westminister, one of the claimants for the honor, Walter Sherwood, being present. His mother, Mrs. Mary Sherwood, the first bride, was also present and asked to say a few words, after which Mrs. H. Larter told of being present at the wedding which was the first one she had ever attended and which took place during an old-fashioned "Santa Ana" wind.

Rev. W. T. Wardle during his talk read an interesting letter clipped from a paper printed in the early seventies, which answered questions concerning the new colony of Westminister.

Other speakers were W. H. Marquis of Monrovia, E. D. Barton of Altadena, Everett Trefethen of San Pedro, Mrs. Neeta Marquis, Mrs. Betty Leech of Los Angeles, and John Edwards of Santa Ana.

It was decided that the annual reunion take place on Labor Day next year.

After adjournment the crowd was treated to delicious watermelon by R. E. Larter, who had also at dinner time shared a fine birthday cake with old-time friends as far as it would reach.

Following are those who registered, with the date of arrival at Westminister colony:

OLD TIME FREAK WILL COME HERE
AS STAR OF BIG CIRCUS SIDE SHOW

"Zip," Famous "What-Is-It," Is One of Many Human Curiosities with the Barnum & Bailey Show

Headed by the famous "Zip," known variously since the days of P. T. Barnum as "The Monkey-Man," "The Missing Link" and "The What-Is-It," there is an old time reunion of human curiosities with the Barnum & Bailey circus, which will be seen here on September 20.

Since the passing of the "dime museums" and the retirement of the freaks from circus life, these strange people have mostly gathered in little colonies of their own, in the suburbs of Philadelphia and New York, and lived secluded lives. Most of the old-timers are wealthy and own their own home, but like all other members of the sawdust world, they long for the free, happy life of the circus, and they are prone to be extremely sensitive to their misfortunes, when left to their own resources. Seldom, if ever, is a freak to be seen in public when not on exhibition, and this explains the secluded little colonies where most of them have lived during the past few years.

So many demands have been made on the management of the Barnum & Bailey circus by the public for the return of the freaks that an effort has been made this season to revive the old-time freak congress that was once a stellar attraction with the big shows. Of course, even of late years, there have always been a few curiosities of this nature in the side shows, but this season all the good old-timers will be on the job, as well as a host of new ones that have sprung up.

The giants, the human skeletons, the bearded women, the fat women, the midgets, the albinos, the tattooed wonders, the wild men, the strong men, the smileless men, the three-legged youths, in fact all the strange and curious population of human what-nots in America and abroad will appear in the forum of freaks with the Barnum & Bailey circus this season. Many of the old-timers, who amazed our grandfathers, will once more be on exhibition.

JAY GRAY WAS IN SERVICE TWO YEARS

Received Fatal Wound Few Days After His Second Year on Line

Jay Gray, the Tustin man who has been fighting with the Canadian forces, and who was killed in action on August 9, when a piece of shrapnel hit him in the throat, served in the army two years and nine days before receiving his fatal wound. He had been injured a number of times, but recovered and returned to the firing line. His last letters have just been received by his parents. One was to his father, written on July 31, and the other was to his mother, who is visiting at Kalkaska, Mich., and which has been forwarded here. It was written on August 2, seven days before his death.

The manner in which the Dominion Government advises relatives when a soldier is killed is illustrated in the official notices received by the father at Tustin. Three official notices have come to him, one from Lieutenant Bainbridge, one from Secretary of State for War Derby, and one from the Minister of Militia and Defense for Canada.

All the letters mentioned are reproduced herewith in full:

To Mother
August 2, 1918.

We had a little rain today, about enough to lay the dust nicely. The other day I had a nice swim in a river. Outside of the fact that the water was a little bit cold, I enjoyed it very much.

I don't carry a rifle any more, but a Smith & Wesson .45 revolver, which is a lot easier to carry when we are out of the line, but of course I have to carry the Lewis gun from supports to the front line; however, I always had to carry something extra just as heavy anyway, so I figure I am quite a bit better off.

One of the curious sights in this country is to see boys from four years up smoking cigarettes on the streets when they can bum them from the soldiers. I know the boys at home sometimes smoke when they are quite young, but it is generally done in a secret place. Here I have seen boys 11 or 12 years old given cigarettes by their mothers. My address is the same, 706422 D Cy. 29th Bn. C. E. F., France.

I have been overseas two years up to the first of the month, so I could wear three blue service stripes if I wanted to, also I could wear a gold stripe for being wounded, and a regular chevrons upside down for two years' good conduct, which was due the first of the year.

The second good conduct stripe is issued three years after the first, so I hope I never have another one coming. The troops very seldom put these up, however, because as one "old-timer" says, he would look like a Mexican general.

To Father
July 31, 1918.

Decided I would write rather than wait for another letter from you, as I have been for the last week.

I had a rather strenuous birthday. Starting in with a long hike at midnight 4 1/2 hours long, and then an other 2 1/2-hour march in the afternoon. We are having some more excellent weather. It is perhaps a little too warm in the afternoons, but I like it better than the cold weather. The troops keep eying the fruit trees with great expectations, but it is still somewhat green outside of cherries, which are just about gone now. I bought some tomatoes the other day for a franc and a half a pound.

We were going to have a Lewis gun competition which consisted in the ones and twos taking the gun out of its box, stripping it down to the radiator which covers the barrel, putting it back together and advancing 25 yards and being all ready to fire, and in the meantime No. three loads a magazine. My No. two, three, and myself practiced till we did it in four minutes, which is somewhat better than the average, but I hardly think it was fast enough to win.

Have seen from a distance some of the places you were reading about last spring, but of course I can't mention any names.

From Lieutenant
S. 15, '18.

Dear Mr. Gray:

I am sorry to have to tell you the sad news which you no doubt heard from the war office. Your son was killed by a piece of shrapnel hitting him in the throat on August 9, 1918. The only words he spoke were, "I am done for." He died without any pain as he only lived a minute or so. He was one of the best boys I know—a brave soldier and a good comrade; also a fine example to the men of my platoon and one who will be missed by all the company and all others who knew him.

From Minister of Militia
Minister's Office, Ottawa,
August 27, 1918.

Personal.

Dear Mr. Gray:

I desire to express to you my very sincere sympathy in the recent decease of your son, No. 706422, Private Jay Junias Gray, C. E. F., who in sacrificing his life at the front in action with the enemy, has rendered the highest services of a worthy citizen.

The heavy loss which you and the nation have sustained would indeed be depressing were it not redeemed by the knowledge that the brave comrade for whom we mourn performed his duties fearlessly and well as became a good soldier, and gave his life for the great cause of Human Liberty and the Defence of the Empire.

Again extending to you in your bereavement my condolence and heartfelt sympathy.

From Secretary for War
The King commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of His Majesty and the Queen in your sorrow.

POMONA BEAN CROP TO BE LARGER THIS YEAR

POMONA, Sept. 11.—The bean crop in the Pomona-Ontario-Chino district will probably be larger than last year in the opinion of milling officials and feed men. There is a large acreage planted, particularly in the Chino district. Last year the hot spell in June had considerable effect on the beans.

This valley is to furnish approximately a million cans of tomatoes to the army, according to estimates made here by Superintendent Boyd Hocker of the Pomona Valley cannery. He also announced that the cannery had received orders from the government to reserve its entire output of solid pack tomatoes for army use. Thus the only tomatoes thrown onto the market will be the tomato puree. The tomato canning is just now starting in earnest in Pomona. During the week an average of fifty tons a day will be canned. The tomatoes are reported of extra good quality.

A WOMAN'S BACK
The Advice of This Santa Ana Woman
Is of Certain Value

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains. Oftentimes "the kidneys" fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Santa Ana women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. F. L. Blain, 528 E. Washington Ave., says: "I suffered from backache and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. At times, when I was sweeping the floor, sharp twinges of pain would catch me in the small of my back and nearly drive me wild. Mornings I awoke feeling more tired than when I went to bed. I was very nervous and even the children playing disturbed me. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at Hatzfeld & Parsons' drug store and they gave me wonderful relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Blain had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

MUSICAL WONDER IS
18-MONTHS-OLD
BABY GIRL

Patriotic Little Miss Can't Talk, But She Carries the Tunes Splendidly

HARPER, Sept. 12.—Newport Heights has a musical wonder, a record-beater, a diminutive Jenny Lind, indeed, in little Dorris Quinn, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Quinn. It is recorded that Jenny Lind, the famous Swedish vocalist, at the age of 3 years could sing correctly any piece of music once heard, and at the age of 9 was placed in training under a high-class vocal instructor. Little Dorris Quinn at 13 months of age was noticed humming a familiar tune which she had heard her mother and older sister Vesta, now 3 1/2 years old, sing. It somewhat astonished the mother, who being a fine pianist, encouraged little Dorris so that now she hums, readily with the syllable "ah" the tunes "America," "Star Spangled Banner," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and some others. She does not talk yet more than to say, "Mama" and "dada," but her time and tune are perfect. When she starts the "Star Spangled Banner" herself she takes a pitch low enough so that she carries it all the way through, but if another starts it in a higher key she joins in the lower measures, but where the pitch is too high for her she rests until the tune descends to her compass, and joins in again in perfect accord. So true are her tones and so exact her tempo that those who hear her are filled with the wonder of it.

C. S. Wilson, with his wife and child, went to Lytle Creek for a few days' rest last week and on Tuesday started for Maricopa, to Mrs. Wilson's brother's home, where the men folks are going on a deer hunt and the women will stay home and fry the venison.

New Mesa Residents

John Barry and wife moved on to the Roy Wilson ranch on Monday. Mr. Barry comes from Long Beach, where he has been a number of years employed as a swimming instructor. He has bought the Roy Wilson place of ten acres, having previously bought five acres across the street, now growing a fine crop of peppers under lease to a Japanese gardener. The fifteen acres with the improvements on the Wilson ranch makes Mr. Barry a very valuable property.

Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth of Cucamonga are occupying the Lotspeich house on Newport Heights for a couple of weeks' respite from the interior heat. Mr. Wentworth is a banker in that mountain-side city.

Mrs. J. R. Thomas came over from Terminal Island last Sunday and called on friends who were her neighbors when she lived at Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Lang and two daughters of Artesia were callers on their friends, Mr. and Mrs. James Walker, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hershey of Oklahoma City are stopping at David Armstrong's for a short time. They motored to Los Angeles with their friend, Miss Plummer, on Tuesday for a "city outing."

David Marsh of Long Beach came over to visit his mother on Sunday.

Mrs. McKittick and son Paul have gone to Kansas City, Mo., for a visit.

At Cranks' Convention

E. C. Kersey returned from the Cranks' Convention held at Dr. Henry's home near Sunland, full of joy over the Cranks he met there. They had four lectures a day and slept on the ground under the quiet stars. He saw some way-up Cranks and heard them grind out wisdom by the barrelful. One Crank had read sixty-one different Bibles and said no wonder the world is full of religious chaos. There was the raw food crank, the no food or fasting crank, the Socialist crank, the Spiritualist crank and even the female brakebeam crank. Chief Crank Henry presided, and cranked out all the cranky programs and rules of cranky order.

Dan Reich and family and his brother, Herman Reich, drove to Laguna Beach on Sunday to join Los Angeles friends at a picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swales with their three daughters took a week's outing at Catalina, returning Monday. They report conditions on the island as favorable for a good time which they took advantage of to the high water mark.

More Pet Skunks Captured

The late skunk episode has an appendix. Frank L. Dodge caught three more or three successive evenings before bedtime in that same steel trap at that same hole under that same back door step. J. S. Thompson caught one that was trying to raid his hen coop and Mrs. Banks caught one in defense of her fat chickens. All fell victims to the good steel trap baited with fifty cent bacon.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Duyen returned from Temescal Canyon Monday, where they had spent a profitable week. Mr. and Mrs. Evans drove over on Sunday and returned with them.

Mr. Anderson, a son-in-law of W. S. Williamson, has gone to San Diego to work in the shipyards.

Mrs. H. B. Woodrough's two sisters have returned to their home in Nebraska and Miss Grimm will soon leave for the front as a Red Cross nurse.

R. Woodrough and Mr. and Mrs. Clemson of Los Angeles were visitors at H. B. Woodrough's last Sunday. They all went to Byron Hall's Newport Hotel for a fish dinner and report an excellent service. Mr. Hall was for a number of years a Harper gardener and dairyman and his old neighbors like to try out his cuisine and not find it wanting.

The last few days have been cool enough so that the coast masquitos have been loading on its job.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Salyer and their son, Robert George Salyer, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson for ten days ending Monday.

LESS than a year from now you will have to pay another and larger income tax, and the present is the time to begin preparing for it.

Start laying aside, in an Income Tax Fund at this bank, a little out of each month's receipts. By this method you will receive interest on your deposits, and the financial strain will be less when the tax becomes due.

This plan can be applied to insurance premiums, rent and living expenses. It is called the Budget Plan.
